

MOTHER TERESA WOMEN'S UNIVERSITY
(A State University)
KODAIKANAL

DIRECTORATE OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

PROSPECTUS

About the University

Mother Teresa Women's University is situated in Kodaikanal, a hill station set at the edge of Mountain Lake, tucked away in the Palani Hills of South India. Kodaikanal has an ideal climate. People resort to this station lured by its exquisite scenic beauty and pleasant weather. Kodaikanal is accessible by road from Batlagundu and Palani. Its nearest Railway Station is Kodai Road and nearest Air Ports is Madurai.

Mother Teresa Women's University earns a distinctive place in the Higher Educational system as the only University exclusively devoted to women's issues. The university was established in 1984, by the enactment of Tamil Nadu Act, 15. As enunciated in the Act, it is given the responsibility of monitoring, offering consultancy services and research in the area of Women's Studies. The renowned late Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu Dr.M.G. Ramachandran envisaged the University to grow in the long run as an Institute of International standing, facilitation staff exchanges, guest lecturing and collaborating researches with other Universities of India and abroad in the area of women's studies.

The very naming after Mother Teresa lays special emphasis on the University's commitment to the welfare of the rural women folk, destitute women and women in impoverished state besides furthering the advancement of learning and prosecution of research in Women Studies.

Directorate of Distance Education

The Directorate of Distance Education, Mother Teresa Women's University was started in 1988 at Kodaikanal. Its mission is to empower women through education, especially women who for some reason are deprived of studying through the regular mode. The Directorate of Distance Education seeks to break the boundaries which block women from pursuing higher education by taking education to the homes of women who cannot go to regular college. Our goal is higher education for every woman who aspires for it. We aim to extend not only equal but equitable opportunities of education to women who desire the privilege of higher education to be pursued at their own place and time, simultaneously with the demand of a job or domestic commitments. The Directorate of Distance Education is a boon to career women who aspire to enhance their personal and professional competence and to home bound women who wish to profitably use their time and resources to satisfy their deferred academic aspirations and also to the rural girls who have no access to the mainline educational system. The Directorate of Distance Education now functions from Kodaikanal and also has its own Research and Extension Centres at Madurai, Chennai and Coimbatore and many study centres in major cities to reach out to more women and to offer more academic support to them. Keeping in mind the changing needs of our society the Directorate of Distance Education offers courses to equip women to enter into new areas in the world of Management, Business Administration, Information Technology in addition to offering add-on programmes in traditional disciplines. It has also extended its frontiers by offering Diploma and Certificate courses to those women who work at the grass root level in NGO management, Self Help Groups, Community Health Workers, Women Leaders in Political and Civic Administration. Thus the Directorate of Distance Education is committed to provide access to affordable, supportive and flexible but quality education to all women seekers of knowledge from all walks of life.

Objectives of Directorate of Distance Education

The objectives of Directorate of Distance Education has formulated for itself for:

1. Fulfilling educational gender gap
2. Provision of equal educational opportunity
3. Expansion of higher education for women
4. Lifelong and need based education
5. Provision of opportunity for Higher Education to all sects of women
6. Moulding the candidates for gainful employment
7. Special focus on profitable self employment
8. Individual personality development

Salient Features:

- Students friendly fees
- Opportunity to all eligible women
- Programmes designed to meet social and career needs Parallel and Add on courses
- Regular programmes in selected Off-Campus centres
