

Home Made Washing Powder Workshop- 18.09.2024

Around 20 members learned the process through clear, accessible instruction in their local language. This workshop not only taught a practical skill but also fostered community learning, knowledge sharing, and a commitment to self-sufficiency and sustainable practices.

